NORTH FORT WORTH SETS SIGHT ON AN EASTER HELICOPTER CANDY DROP

FORT WORTH, TX (April 3, 2017- On Saturday, April 8, Keystone Fellowship Church will host their first annual helicopter candy drop.

The event will begin at 1:00 P.M. on Keystone's newly purchased 12.5 acres of land in the middle of the Alliance business district, at 6162 Sandshell Dr. Fort Worth TX 766137. The candy drop will include live entertainment, a video-gaming truck, bounce houses, a concert and games for all ages. Keystone has partnered with Shady Oaks barbeque and On The Border to provide free food for all event-goers.

Keystone is not new to throwing extravagant events; the church has hosted a slew of large block parties starring Gospel headliners like Sunday's Best host, Kim Burrell. Keystone's past outreaches served around 600 people each event, the church expects the candy drop to vastly exceed the attendance of its predecessors.

"We are fully equipped to handle the masses of people that will come to the helicopter candy drop," said Keystone Fellowship Church's pastor, Damon Halliday. "This event will be fun for the whole family and at no cost to the community."

There will be three separate candy drops in 15-minute intervals. The first candy placement will be for 6 and under, the second for ages 7-11 and the final drop for 12-18-year-olds.
